

A high-contrast, black and white photograph of two dark, cylindrical objects standing side-by-side on a light-colored surface against a dark background. The objects are completely black, creating a stark silhouette effect. The surface they stand on is light and textured, while the background is dark and grainy. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the edges of the cylinders and the surface they rest on.

A high-contrast, black and white photograph of a dark, cylindrical object, possibly a barrel or drum, standing upright. The object is mostly in shadow, with a bright, vertical highlight running down its center, suggesting a reflective surface. The background is a light, textured surface, possibly a wall or ground, with a dark, textured foreground area at the bottom.
